

Cretney & Lush on Lasting and Enduring Powers of Attorney

Eighth Edition

Caroline Bielanska LLB (Hons), TEP, Solicitor

Caroline Bielanska Consultancy

Denzil Lush BA, MA, LL.M

Former Senior Judge of the Court of Protection

LexisNexis®

Members of the LexisNexis Group worldwide

United Kingdom	RELX (UK) Limited, trading as LexisNexis, Lexis House, 30 Farringdon Street, London EC4A 4HH
Australia	LexisNexis Butterworths, Chatswood, New South Wales
Austria	LexisNexis Verlag ARD Orac GmbH & Co KG, Vienna
Benelux	LexisNexis Benelux, Amsterdam
Canada	LexisNexis Canada, Markham, Ontario
China	LexisNexis China, Beijing and Shanghai
France	LexisNexis SA, Paris
Germany	LexisNexis Deutschland GmbH, Munster
Hong Kong	LexisNexis Hong Kong, Hong Kong
India	LexisNexis India, New Delhi
Italy	Giuffrè Editore, Milan
Japan	LexisNexis Japan, Tokyo
Malaysia	Malayan Law Journal Sdn Bhd, Kuala Lumpur
New Zealand	LexisNexis NZ Ltd, Wellington
Singapore	LexisNexis Singapore, Singapore
South Africa	LexisNexis Butterworths, Durban
USA	LexisNexis, Dayton, Ohio

First Published in 1987

© RELX (UK) Limited 2017

Published by LexisNexis

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced in any material form (including photocopying or storing it in any medium by electronic means and whether or not transiently or incidentally to some other use of this publication) without the written permission of the copyright owner except in accordance with the provisions of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 or under the terms of a licence issued by the Copyright Licensing Agency Ltd, Saffron House, 6–10 Kirby Street, London EC1N 8TS. Applications for the copyright owner's written permission to reproduce any part of this publication should be addressed to the publisher.

Warning: The doing of an unauthorised act in relation to a copyright work may result in both a civil claim for damages and criminal prosecution.

Crown copyright material is reproduced with the permission of the Controller of HMSO and the Queen's Printer for Scotland. Parliamentary copyright material is reproduced with the permission of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office on behalf of Parliament. Any European material in this work which has been reproduced from EUR-lex, the official European Communities legislation website, is European Communities copyright.

A CIP Catalogue record for this book is available from the British Library.

ISBN for this volume: 9781784733766

Printed and bound by Hobbs the Printers Ltd, Totton, Hampshire

Visit LexisNexis at www.lexisnexis.co.uk

Contents

Foreword	v
Preface	xI
Table of Cases	xLI
Table of Statutes	xLIi
Table of Statutory Instruments	iV

PART I LASTING POWERS OF ATTORNEY

Chapter 1 The History of Enduring and Lasting Powers of Attorney

Introduction

The automatic revocation rule at common law	1.1
Avoiding court proceedings	1.5

Durable powers of attorney in the United States of America

Early prototypes of durable powers of attorney	1.7
Uniform Probate Code (1969)	1.8

The Law Commission's recommendations

Report on Powers of Attorney (1970)	1.12
The Incapacitated Principal (1983)	1.13

Enduring Powers of Attorney Act 1985

Principal features of the Enduring Powers of Attorney Act 1985	1.18
--	------

Reaction in other jurisdictions to the Enduring Powers of Attorney Act 1985	1.20
---	------

The impact of the Enduring Powers of Attorney Act 1985	1.23
--	------

Enduring Powers of Attorney: A Report to the Lord Chancellor (1991)	1.27
---	------

The Law Commission's project on mentally incapacitated adults and decision-making

Contents

Consultation papers	1.29
Mental Incapacity (1995)	1.31
The prime policy aim is to encourage anticipatory decision-making	1.32
Donors should be permitted to delegate authority to make personal welfare and health care decisions	1.33
The need for a different description from ‘enduring’ power of attorney	1.34
The Law Commission’s specific recommendations on continuing powers of attorney	1.35
Developments between 1995 and 2005
Making Decisions (1999)	1.36
Quinquennial Review of the Public Trust Office (1999)	1.37
Draft Mental Incapacity Bill (2003)	1.39
Joint Committee on the Draft Mental Incapacity Bill (2003)	1.40
The Government’s response to the Scrutiny Committee’s report (2004)	1.42
Legislative passage of the Mental Capacity Act 2005	1.43
Developments since the implementation of the Mental Capacity Act 2005
Commencement of the Mental Capacity Act 2005	1.44
Revision of the 2007 prescribed forms of LPA	1.46
United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities	1.49
Digitalisation of the OPG’s services	1.51
House of Lords Select Committee on the Mental Capacity Act 2005	1.53
The future of Lasting Power of Attorney research	1.57
OPG’s digital LPA tool	1.58
Proposal for new forms	1.59
The National Mental Capacity Forum	1.62
Statistics	1.64
The digital future	1.65
Chapter 2 Differences between Enduring Powers of Attorney and Lasting Powers of Attorney

Chapter 3 Capacity to Create a Lasting Power of Attorney

Age	3.1
Statutory definition of lack of capacity	3.2
Functional approach to capacity	3.4
The diagnostic threshold	3.6
The statutory principles	3.9
Presumption of capacity	3.12
All practicable steps	3.14
Unwise decisions	3.16
Unjustified assumptions	3.20
Inability to make decisions	3.22
Relevant information	3.27
Standard of proof	3.34
Certification	3.35
Further guidance on assessing capacity	3.36
The criteria in Re K, Re F and LPAs	3.38

Chapter 4 AttorneysWho may be an attorney?

Introduction	4.1
Minors	4.2
Trust corporations	4.3
Bankrupts	4.7
Office-holders	4.8
More than one attorney
Number of attorneys	4.11
Joint and joint and several appointments	4.12
Failure to specify whether joint or joint and several	4.18
Effect of one attorney failing to satisfy the qualifications for appointment	4.21
Application for registration where there is more than one attorney	4.24
Objection to registration where there is more than one attorney	4.27
Effect of termination of one attorney's authority	4.30

Contents

Replacement attorneys
Section 10(8)	4.36
The donee cannot appoint his own replacement	4.37
Policy considerations	4.38
Events causing the replacement of a donee	4.41
Number of replacement attorneys	4.45
Replacement sequence	4.46
Practical problems with replacement attorneys	4.47
Choosing an attorney
Guidance for donors	4.52
Appointing a spouse or civil partner	4.54
Chapter 5 Named Persons
Summary	5.1
Policy and legislative history	5.6
The Incapacitated Principal (1983)	5.7
Enduring Powers of Attorney: A Report to the Lord Chancellor (1991)	5.9
The Law Commission's consultation paper (1992)	5.10
The Law Commission's report on Mental Incapacity (1995)	5.11
The Joint Committee's report on the Draft Mental Incapacity Bill (2003)	5.12
The Report Stage of the Mental Capacity Bill (2005)	5.13
Transforming the Services of the Office of the Public Guardian (2012)	5.14
Requirements of the Act regarding named persons	5.16
Maximum number of five named persons	5.18
An attorney may not be a named person	5.21
Where there are no named persons	5.25
The contents of the instrument relating to named persons	5.27
Notifying the named persons	5.32
Notice of Intention to Apply for Registration of a Lasting Power of Attorney: LP3	5.35
Practical points	5.39
Where the named persons have died or cannot be contacted	5.41
Dispensing with the requirement to notify	5.42

The Code of Practice and the named persons	5.46
Chapter 6 Certificate Providers
Introduction	6.1
Policy and legislative history
The purpose of the certificate	6.7
An overview	6.8
The Incapacitated Principal (1983)	6.9
Enduring Powers of Attorney: A Report to the Lord Chancellor (1991)	6.10
Law Commission consultation paper Mentally Incapacitated Adults and Decision-Making: A New Jurisdiction (1992)	6.12
Law Commission report, Mental Incapacity (1995)	6.13
Who Decides? (1997)	6.14
Department for Constitutional Affairs, Consultation Paper CP 01/06	6.15
Response to Consultation Paper CP 01/06	6.16
Transforming the Services of the Office of the Public Guardian (2012)	6.19
Transforming the Services of the Office of the Public Guardian: Enabling Digital by Default (2013)	6.21
The requirement for a certificate	6.25
Persons who may provide the certificate	6.26
The certificate provider must be chosen by the donor	6.28
Category A – Knowledge certification	6.29
Category B – Skills certification	6.35
Registered health care professionals	6.39
Barristers, solicitors or advocates	6.40
Registered social workers	6.42
Independent mental capacity advocates	6.43
When should professionals be involved?	6.46
Persons who are disqualified from giving a certificate	6.47
Former requirement for two certificates where the instrument has no named persons	6.49
The role and responsibilities of a certificate provider
The certificate provider must act independently	6.51

Contents

Guidance	6.53
Case-law on the eligibility of certificate providers	6.56
Chapter 7 Execution of a Lasting Power of Attorney
Summary	7.1
The prescribed form
An LPA must be in the prescribed form	7.13
Two prescribed forms	7.18
Meaning of ‘in the prescribed form’	7.24
Continuation sheets	7.25
Welsh language versions	7.32
Large print versions	7.33
Filling in the form
Before filling in the form	7.34
The people involved in your LPA	7.35
Guidance	7.36
Filling in the form	7.38
Continuation sheets	7.39
Execution by the donor
The donor must read (or have read to him) all the prescribed information	7.40
The donor must complete Sections 1-7 of the instrument, and sign Section 9 of it in the presence of a witness	7.45
Signature or mark	7.46
The witness of the donor’s signature	7.47
Execution at the direction of the donor	7.50
The certificate provider
The certificate provider must read Sections 8 and 10 of the LPA	7.54
The certificate provider should read the LPA	7.55
The certificate provider should discuss the form with the donor in private, if possible	7.56
The certificate provider must form an opinion on the donor’s capacity	7.60
The certificate provider should keep a record of the assessment	7.64
The certificate provider must complete the certificate in Section 10 of the instrument and sign it	7.67

Execution by the attorney
The attorney must read all the prescribed information in Section 8	7.71
The attorney must complete Section 11 of the instrument, and sign and date it in the presence of a witness	7.75
The witness of the attorney's signature	7.79
Execution by a trust corporation	7.81
Execution by a replacement attorney	7.83
Re-execution	7.86
Consequences of failure to comply with the formalities
An instrument which does not comply with the statutory requirements confers no authority	7.87
An unregistered LPA cannot operate as an ordinary power of attorney	7.88
Immaterial differences	7.89
The court may declare that an LPA that is not in the prescribed form is to be treated as if it were	7.91
Omissions	7.92
Severance of ineffective or invalid provisions	7.93
Chapter 8 Application to Register a Lasting Power of Attorney
Introduction
Summary	8.1
An LPA must be registered	8.2
Obtaining the registration forms	8.3
The applicant	8.6
Form LP3
Form LP3: Notice of intention to register a Lasting Power of Attorney	8.8
There is no need for the applicant to notify anyone other than named persons or people to notify	8.11
Where the applicant is unable to locate a named person	8.15
Dispensing with the requirement to notify a named person	8.16
Sections 12–15 of the LPA Form or Form LP2
Application to register a Lasting Power of Attorney	8.19
Offences	8.25

Contents

Documents to be sent to the Office of the Public Guardian	8.26
Where the original LPA is missing	8.28
Forms LPA 003A and LPA 003B
Form LPA 003A: Notifying the attorney	8.32
Form LPA 003B: Notifying the donor	8.34
Duty of the Public Guardian to provide the donor with an explanation of form LPA 003B	8.36
Processing the application	8.37
Defects in the LPA	8.38
Defects in the application	8.39
Repeat applications to register	8.40
The prescribed period to elapse before registration	8.44
Circumstances in which the Public Guardian must not register	8.45
Registration	8.46
Form LPA 004: Notice of registration of an LPA	8.47
The appearance of a registered LPA	8.49
Office copies of the registered LPA	8.51
Application to register a replacement attorney	8.53
Chapter 9 Objections to Registration of a Lasting Power of Attorney
Introduction	9.1
Factual grounds of objection
List of factual grounds	9.11
Donor's bankruptcy	9.12
Attorney's bankruptcy	9.15
Dissolution or winding-up of a trust corporation	9.18
Donor's death	9.19
Attorney's death	9.20
Dissolution or annulment of marriage or civil partnership	9.21
Attorney's incapacity	9.23
Attorney's disclaimer	9.26
Objection on factual grounds
The objection must be sent to the Office of the Public Guardian	9.28

Time limit of three weeks	9.29
LPA 007: Notice of objection	9.30
Notice that the ground of objection is established	9.33
Request for further information	9.34
Notice that, although the ground of objection is established, the instrument is not revoked	9.35
Right to make further objection	9.37
Effect of successful objection on factual grounds	9.38
Objection by donor
Introduction	9.39
Schedule 1, paragraph 14	9.41
Time limit of three weeks	9.43
LPA 006: Objection by the donor	9.44
The attorney must apply to the court to direct the Public Guardian to register	9.46
Capacity to object to registration	9.49
Objection on a prescribed ground
List of prescribed grounds	9.51
That one or more of the requirements for creating an LPA have not been met	9.54
That the power has been revoked or has otherwise come to an end	9.57
That fraud or undue pressure was used to induce the donor to create an LPA	9.59
The attorney's behaviour contravenes his authority, or is not in the donor's best interests	9.62
Objection to the Court of Protection
Introduction	9.67
Permission	9.68
Obtaining the forms	9.69
COP 7: Application to object to the registration of an LPA	9.71
LPA 008: Notice to the Office of the Public Guardian of an application to object to the registration of an LPA made to the Court of Protection	9.74
Issue of application form	9.75
Service of documents	9.77

Contents

Certificate of service	9.81
Responding to the application	9.82
Dealing with applications	9.83
Decisions based on the application without a court hearing	9.84
Reconsideration of orders made without a hearing	9.86
Directions about the application	9.87
Section 49 reports	9.88
Decision to hold an attended hearing	9.91
Hearings	9.94
Burden of proof	9.99
Notifying the donor of the final order	9.100
Appeals	9.101
Chapter 10 Functions of the Public Guardian
Introduction
The Public Guardian	10.1
The functions of the Public Guardian in relation to LPAs	10.2
Annual report	10.5
Functions relating to establishing and maintaining the register of LPAs
The purpose of registration	10.6
Registration is compulsory	10.7
Registration is a purely administrative function	10.9
The Public Guardian's duty to establish and maintain the register	10.11
Contents of the register	10.13
Accessibility of register and confidentiality	10.14
Search by the Public Guardian	10.17
Disclosure of additional information	10.19
Procedure on applying for a search	10.21
Functions relating to the registration of LPAs
Registration procedure	10.28
Immaterial differences from the prescribed form	10.37
Circumstances in which the Public Guardian is prevented from registering an instrument	10.39

Provision of court order to Public Guardian	10.40
Notifying applicants of non-registration of an instrument	10.41
Functions on cancellation of registration
Circumstances in which registration must be cancelled	10.42
Duty to notify on cancellation	10.43
Recording alterations in registered powers	10.44
Complaints and investigations
Identifying and tackling possible abuse	10.48
Dealing with representations (including complaints) about an attorney	10.50
Making applications to the Court of Protection	10.55
Visits by the Public Guardian or by Court of Protection Visitors at his direction	10.56
Power to require information from attorneys	10.62
Publications	10.68
Chapter 11 Functions of the Court of Protection
Introduction	11.1
The structure of the Court
The Court of Protection	11.4
Judges of the Court of Protection	11.6
Appeals	11.7
Functions of the court	11.8
Court of Protection Rules 2007	11.9
Practice directions	11.10
Court forms	11.11
Separation of supervisory functions between the Court and the Public Guardian
Separation of functions	11.12
The court has no jurisdiction to review decisions of the Public Guardian	11.15
Powers of Court in relation to the validity of LPAs	11.16
Powers of Court in relation to applications to register an LPA
Summary of powers in relation to applications to register LPAs	11.17
Where the instrument is neither the original nor a certified

Contents

copy of it	11.18
Dispensing with the requirement to notify named persons	11.22
Declaration that an LPA, which is not in the prescribed form, is to be treated as if it were	11.26
Severance of ineffective or illegal provisions	11.31
Application to register an LPA where a deputy has been appointed	11.35
Objections to the registration of an LPA	11.36
Supervisory powers where the donor lacks capacity
Policy and legislative history	11.37
Summary of powers of the court in relation to the operation of LPAs	11.38
Directions with respect to decisions which the attorney has authority to make and which the donor lacks capacity to make	11.39
Consent or authorisation to act which the attorney would have to obtain from the donor if he had the capacity to give it	11.40
Directions to the attorney with respect to the rendering by him of reports or accounts, and the production of records	11.42
Requiring the attorney to supply information or to produce documents or things in his possession	11.43
Directions with respect to the remuneration or expenses of the attorney	11.45
Relieve the attorney from any liability that he has or may have incurred on account of a breach of his duties as attorney	11.48
Authorising the making of gifts which are not permitted by section 12(2)	11.49
Authorising a person to execute a will on behalf of the donor	11.51
Power to call for reports	11.53
Revocation of an LPA by the court	11.56
Chapter 12 Fees and Costs
Fees: the statutory framework	12.1
The Public Guardian's fees	12.2
Court of Protection fees	12.4
The Public Guardian's fees
Fees payable to the Public Guardian	12.7
Payment terms and methods	12.8

Application to register an EPA	12.13
Application to register as an LPA	12.16
Repeat application to register an LPA	12.20
Office copies	12.24
Enduring Power of Attorney office copy fee	12.25
Lasting Power of Attorney office copy fee	12.27
Search fee (abolished)	12.30
Exemptions	12.32
Reductions and remissions in exceptional circumstances	12.34
Review	12.40
Court of Protection fees
Fees payable to the Court of Protection	12.41
Payment terms and methods	12.43
Application fee	12.46
Appeal fee	12.51
Hearing fee	12.52
Fees for copies of court documents	12.54
Consultation and report	12.56
The Courts and Tribunals Fee Remissions Order 2013	12.57
Disposable capital test	12.58
Gross monthly income test	12.59
Costs
Sources of law	12.60
Rules 156 to 159	12.61
Practice directions on costs	12.62
Case-law	12.63
Chapter 13 The Scope of the Attorney's Authority Under a Lasting Power
Introduction
The attorney has no authority unless the instrument is registered	13.1
General authority	13.2
Scope of authority under an LPA	13.6
Meaning of 'property and affairs'	13.9

Contents

Examples of decisions relating to property and affairs	13.10
Acting as a company director	13.11
Meaning of ‘personal welfare’	13.12
Examples of health and welfare decisions	13.13
Restrictions on the scope of the attorney’s authority
General	13.15
Excluded decisions under the Mental Capacity Act 2005	13.16
Excluded decisions relating to family relationships	13.18
Excluded decisions relating to Mental Health Act matters	13.20
Excluded decisions relating to voting rights	13.23
Decisions excluded by other enactments	13.24
Decisions excluded by the common law of agency	13.25
Acting for the donor as an administrator or executor	13.26
Specific restrictions imposed by the Mental Capacity Act 2005
Use of restraint	13.27
An attorney can only make personal welfare decisions which the donor does not have the capacity to make himself	13.31
Effect of an advance decision to refuse treatment	13.33
Life-sustaining treatment	13.36
Gifts	13.42
Maintenance	13.48
Gratuitous care	13.53
Substitutes or successors	13.54
Conditions or restrictions imposed by the donor
The prescribed form	13.55
Guidance distinguished from conditions and restrictions	13.58
Severance of ineffective or invalid provisions	13.61
Examples of provisions that the court has severed	13.64
Decision-making by the attorney
Introduction	13.65
The principles	13.68
Assisting the donor to make his own decisions	13.71
Assessing the donor’s capacity	13.73
Acting in the donor’s best interests	13.76

Making decisions about life-sustaining treatment	13.80
Consulting others	13.81
Other Duties
Regard to the Code	13.84
Fiduciary duties	13.85
Court guidance on investments	13.86
Attorney's liability for wrongs of co-attorney	13.90
Chapter 14 Revocation, Disclaimer and Termination of Lasting Powers of Attorney
Introduction	14.1
Revocation by the donor
The donor may revoke the power at any time when he has capacity to do so	14.3
Capacity to revoke an LPA	14.4
Steps necessary for revocation	14.6
Procedure following revocation by the donor	14.8
The court may determine whether an LPA has been revoked	14.9
Disclaimer by the attorney	14.10
Prescribed form of disclaimer: LPA 005	14.12
The completed form LPA 005 must be sent to the donor	14.16
Copies of the completed form LPA 005 must be sent to the Public Guardian and to the other donee(s)	14.17
The effect of a disclaimer	14.21
Revocation by operation of law
Donor's bankruptcy	14.25
Attorney's bankruptcy	14.29
Dissolution or winding-up of a trust corporation attorney	14.32
Donor's death	14.33
Attorney's death	14.34
Attorney's incapacity	14.35
Dissolution or annulment of a marriage or civil partnership between the donor and the attorney	14.36
Revocation by the Court of Protection	14.38
Suspension of the LPA	14.46
Functions of the Public Guardian on revocation	14.47

Contents

Functions of the Public Guardian on partial revocation	14.48
Chapter 15 Lasting Power of Attorney Precedents
Part 1: both kinds of LPA	15.1
Part 2: LPAs for property and financial affairs	15.9
Part 3: LPAs for health and welfare	15.37
PART II ENDURING POWERS OF ATTORNEY
Chapter 16 Granting an Enduring Power of Attorney
Introduction
Essentials of an enduring power of attorney	16.1
Is a defective EPA valid as an ordinary power?	16.2
The donor
The donor must be an individual	16.3
The donor must have had mental capacity when creating the power	16.4
Evidence of mental capacity	16.11
Other incapacity	16.13
The attorney	16.14
Trust corporations	16.15
Individuals
Appointment of more than one attorney	16.18
Substitute and successor attorneys	16.20
The form of the power	16.21
The prescribed form
Use of prescribed form was mandatory	16.23
Permitted variations	16.34
Additions	16.35
Restrictions	16.43
Short form of EPA	16.48
Execution of the power	16.49
The requirements of execution and attestation	16.50
Execution - special cases	16.53
Trust corporations	16.57
Attestation by spouse	16.58

Alterations	16.59
Consequences of failure to comply with the formalities	16.60
A presumption that the prescribed information was incorporated	16.61
Material and immaterial differences	16.62
Severance of ineffective clauses	16.65
Rectification of EPAs	16.69
Chapter 17 Onset of Mental Incapacity and Functions of the Public Guardian
The significance of the onset of mental incapacity	17.1
Attorney's duties when the donor is becoming mentally incapable	17.5
Mental incapacity	17.6
Mental disorder	17.7
Incapable of managing his property and affairs	17.10
Becoming mentally incapable	17.16
Early registration is desirable	17.19
The notification requirement	17.20
Power to dispense with notification	17.21
The notice to the donor	17.26
The notice to relatives	17.30
Power to dispense classes of attorney from notification requirement	17.31
Who are the specified relatives?	17.32
How many relatives have to be notified?	17.35
Examples of notification requirement	17.38
Effect of the Court of Protection dispensing with notification	17.39
Attorney a specified relative	17.40
Notice must be in the prescribed form	17.41
Service on the donor	17.47
Service on relatives	17.48
Service on a solicitor	17.50
Substituted service	17.51
Duty to give notice to other attorneys	17.53
No time limit	17.54

Contents

The application for registration
Must be made as soon as practicable	17.55
No time limit	17.57
Form of application: EP2PG	17.58
Reasons why EPAs are defective	17.61
Reasons why applications to register are defective	17.62
Functions of the Public Guardian on an application for registration	17.63
The Public Guardian's duty to register if the application is formally correct	17.65
The Court of Protection may waive failure to notify relatives	17.66
Circumstances in which the Public Guardian is prevented from registering an EPA	17.67
Public Guardian must not register if a deputy has been appointed	17.69
Valid notice of objection
Time-limits	17.73
Valid grounds for objection	17.74
At this stage it is immaterial whether the grounds are established	17.75
Grounds for valid notice	17.76
Notice of objection to registration	17.94
No relative to whom notice has been given	17.96
Appropriate inquiries might produce evidence of a ground for objection	17.98
Where the application for registration is not accompanied by the original instrument or a certified copy	17.100
Where the Public Guardian receives a notice of objection but the court does not receive an application	17.101
Establishing and maintaining a register of EPAs	17.108
Chapter 18 The Scope of the Attorney's Authority Under an Enduring Power
Introduction	18.1
General authority
The effect of conferring general authority	18.4
What can a donor lawfully do by an attorney?	18.7

Acting for the donor as an administrator or executor	18.12
General authority over part of the donor's property and affairs	18.13
Specific authority	18.15
Omission to delete general or specific authority	18.16
Subject to any conditions or restrictions	18.17
Scope of authority: the Act's provisions	18.19
Power to provide for people's needs
Schedule 4, paragraph 3(2)	18.20
Needs	18.22
Might the donor be expected to provide for that person's needs?	18.23
What might the donor be expected to do to meet those needs?	18.25
Re Cameron (deceased)	18.27
The effect of the donor's incapacity	18.29
Power to make gifts
Schedule 4, paragraph 3(3)	18.30
Power to make gifts is in addition to the power to provide for needs	18.31
Four conditions must be satisfied	18.32
There must be no restrictions in the instrument	18.33
The timing of the gift	18.34
The recipient of the gift	18.35
The value of the gift	18.37
No need to obtain consent	18.39
Wider authority to make gifts cannot be conferred in the EPA	18.40
The effect of registration on the power to make gifts	18.41
The attorney's authority and power at the onset of donor's incapacity	18.42
Restricted powers pending registration	18.43
Authority only restricted when mental incapacity established	18.47
No power to make gifts pending registration	18.48
The attorney may not disclaim without notifying the Public Guardian	18.49
The attorney's authority and powers when the power is registered

Contents

The attorney may act under power	18.50
The attorney cannot rely on the donor's further authorisation	18.51
The attorney may apply to the Court of Protection	18.53
Gifts when the power is registered	18.54
Acting in the donor's best interests	18.56
Guidance within the Code	18.57

Chapter 19 The Court of Protection and Enduring Powers of Attorney

The Court of Protection	19.1
No jurisdiction to review decisions of the Public Guardian	19.3
Functions prior to registration
Determining validity of power	19.4
Dispensing with the requirement to give notice of the attorney's intention to apply for registration	19.7
Functions on application for registration	19.9
Functions with respect to registered powers	19.10
The Court's functions after registration
The court's functions	19.11
Wills	19.12
Cancellation of a registered power	19.14
Confirmation of donor's revocation	19.15
Exercise of powers under sections 16 to 20	19.16
Donor mentally capable	19.19
The power has expired or been revoked by the incapacity of the attorney	19.22
Power not valid at the time of registration	19.26
Fraud or undue pressure	19.27
Attorney unsuitable	19.28
Delivering up the instrument to be cancelled	19.29
Court of Protection procedure
Introduction	19.30
Obtaining the forms	19.31
COP 8: Application relating to the registration of an enduring power of attorney (EPA)	19.33

Practice Direction 9H	19.36
Third party objection to registration applications to the court	19.37
Other applications	19.38
Issue of application form to object to registration	19.39
Service of documents	19.41
Certificate of service	19.45
Responding to the application	19.46
Dealing with applications	19.47
Reconsideration of orders made without a hearing	19.51
Decision to hold an attended hearing	19.53
COP 28: Notice of hearing	19.54
Hearings	19.56
Notifying the donor of the final order	19.60
Chapter 20 Revocation, Disclaimer and Termination of Enduring Powers
Introduction
The common law	20.1
The policy of the legislation	20.2
Revocation	20.4
Automatic revocation	20.5
Revocation by act of the donor	20.6
A later EPA does not necessarily revoke an earlier one	20.11
Capacity to revoke an EPA	20.13
Revocation by the court	20.20
Disclaimer	20.21
Notice to the Public Guardian required after onset of incapacity	20.24
Right to disclaim is preserved	20.25
Termination by operation of law	20.26
Termination by effluxion of time	20.32
Chapter 21 Appointment of More Than One Attorney
Introduction
Appointments under ordinary powers	21.1
Application to enduring powers	21.3

Contents

Only joint or joint and several appointments permitted
Appointment of substitute attorneys	21.4
Attorneyship cannot run with title	21.9
A way of providing for a succession of attorneys	21.10
Joint attorneys	21.13
Time when attorney must satisfy conditions as to age and solvency	21.15
Substitute attorneys	21.18
Attorney's bankruptcy	21.19
Valid grounds of objection	21.21
Powers of the court once the power is registered	21.22
Powers of the Public Guardian once the power is registered	21.23
Joint and several attorneys	21.25
One attorney failing to satisfy qualifications for appointment	21.26
Registration procedure	21.27
Objections to registration not applying to all joint and several attorneys	21.31
Revocation not applying to all joint and several attorneys	21.32
Prescribed form of qualification of registration	21.33
Bankruptcy of attorney	21.34
Disclaimer	21.38
Attorney's liability for wrongs of co-attorney	21.39
Chapter 22 Protection of Third Parties
Introduction
Consequences of revocation - the common law	22.1
Protection – the Powers of Attorney Act 1971	22.2
Application of 1971 Act to enduring and lasting powers	22.3
Protection for innocent attorney	22.4
Protection for innocent third party	22.5
What constitutes knowledge of revocation of enduring or lasting power?	22.6
Presumption that third party had no knowledge	22.7
Further protection under the Mental Capacity Act 2005 in respect of enduring powers	22.8
Where the instrument fails to create an enduring power	22.9

Protection where the attorney's powers are restricted pending registration	22.10
Protection where the donor never had capacity to grant a power of attorney	22.14
Further protection under the Mental Capacity Act 2005 in respect of lasting powers	22.17
Protection for the attorney	22.18
Protection for a third party	22.19
Presumption in favour of validity	22.20
Chapter 23 The Code of Practice
Introduction	23.1
Mental Capacity Act 2005 Code of Practice	23.10
Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards Code of Practice	23.13
The purpose of the code	23.15
The contents of the code	23.16
The chapters of the code	23.18
People who have a duty to have regard to the code	23.35
Chapters that attorneys need to be aware of	23.40
Failure to comply with the code	23.44
The Munjaz case	23.46
Possible reasons for departing from the code	23.50
Case-law on the MCA 2005 Code of Practice	23.51
Revising the code	23.52
Research relating to the code	23.56
Conclusion	23.57
Chapter 24 Private International Law
Introduction	24.1
The Hague Convention on the International Protection of Adults	24.3
Status of the Hague Convention in England and Wales	24.7
Distinction between protective measures and powers of representation	24.14
Powers of representation	24.19
Exercise of powers of representation	24.29
Case-law	24.36

Contents

Conclusion	24.44
Appendix A Statutes	A1
Powers of Attorney Act 1971	A1
Trustee Delegation Act 1999	A2
Mental Capacity Act 2005	A3
Appendix B Statutory Instruments	B1
Lasting Powers of Attorney, Enduring Powers of Attorney and Public Guardian Regulations 2007	B1
Court of Protection Rules 2007	B2
Appendix C Lasting Power of Attorney Forms	C1
LP1F: Financial decisions	C1
LP1H: Health and care decisions	C2
LPC: Continuation sheets	C3
LP2: Register your LPA	C4
LP3: Form to notify people	C5
LPA 003A: Notice to an attorney of receipt of an application to register a lasting power of attorney	C6
LPA 003B: Notice to donor of receipt of an application to register a lasting power of attorney	C7
LPA 004: Notice of registration of lasting power of attorney (property and financial affairs)	C8
LPA 005: Disclaimer by a proposed or acting attorney under a lasting power of attorney	C9
LPA 006: Objection by the donor	C10
LPA 007: Objection to the Office of the Public Guardian of a proposed registration of a lasting power of attorney on factual grounds	C11
LPA 008: Notice to the Office of the Public Guardian of an application to object to registration of a lasting power of attorney made to the Court of Protection	C12
Appendix D Enduring Power of Attorney Forms	D1
EPA: Prescribed form of Enduring Power of Attorney	D1
EP1PG: Notice of intention to apply for registration of an enduring power of attorney	D2
EP2PG: Application for registration of an enduring power of attorney	D3
Appendix E Court Forms	E1

E1 COP 7: Application to object to the registration of a lasting power of attorney
E2 COP 8: Application relating to the registration of an enduring power of attorney
Appendix F Guidance	F1
Mental Capacity Act 2005 Code of Practice	F1
What does the Act say about Lasting Powers of Attorney?	F1
Quick summary	F1
What is a Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA)?
How does a donor create an LPA?
Who can be an attorney?
How should somebody register and use an LPA?
What guidance should an attorney follow?
What decisions can an LPA attorney make?
Are there any other restrictions on attorneys' powers?
What powers does the Court of Protection have over LPAs?
What responsibilities do attorneys have?
What duties does the Act impose?
What are an attorney's other duties?
How does the Act protect donors from abuse?
What happens to existing EPAs once the Act comes into force?
Practice Direction 9H: Applications relating to the registration of enduring powers of attorney	F2
General	F2
Applications to which this practice direction applies
Objections to registration
Procedure for applications to which this practice direction applies
Practice Direction 23A: Request for directions where notice of objection prevents Public Guardian from registering enduring power of attorney	F3
Appendix G Case Reports
Re K; Re F (Enduring Powers Of Attorney)	G1
Re R (Enduring Power Of Attorney)	G2
Re W (Power Of Attorney)	G3

Contents

The first ground: invalidity due to lack of capacity
The second ground: unsuitability
The gifts
Hostility
Re W (Enduring Power Of Attorney)	G4
Re E (Enduring Power Of Attorney)	G5
Introduction
Issue 1: was the 1992 power revoked by the 1997 power?
Issue 2: suitability of the attorneys
Re C (Power Of Attorney)	G6
The background to the proceedings
The proceedings so far
The statutory framework
The objections
The medical evidence
The hearing on 13 May 1999
The order of 1 December 1999
The way forward
Re F (Enduring Power of Attorney)	G7
Re J (Enduring Power of Attorney)	G8
Appendix 1
Appendix 2
Re FH; M v Public Guardian	G9
Statutory provisions considered
The facts
Decision
Re A; D V B	G10
The background
The objection
Application by the Public Guardian under r 201
Application for reconsideration
Mrs A's estate
The law relating to the unsuitability of an attorney

Decision
Re Collis	G11
Re J	G12
Introduction
History of the application
The hearing
The live issues
The evidence
My decisions
SRA investigation
Costs
Liabilities
Client files
Litigation conduct and integrity
Conflict of interest
Independence
Conclusion – Order and other terms and conditions
Re Putt	G13
Introduction
Decision on the eligibility of the certificate provider
Decision on the delegation clause
Re Buckley: The Public Guardian v C	G14
The background
The general visitor’s report
The application
The special visitor’s report
Yun Ding’s second witness statement
The attorney’s response
The hearing
The law relating to applications of this kind
The investment of funds by an attorney
Decision
Appendix H Severance Decisions Made by the Court – Lasting Powers of Attorney Cases

Contents

Severance of restrictions incompatible with an LPA	H1
Severance of restrictions incompatible with a Health and Welfare LPA	H2
Severance of restrictions relating to life-sustaining treatment	H3
Severance of restrictions incompatible with a Property and Financial Affairs LPA	H4
Severance of restrictions incompatible with a joint and several appointment	H5
Severance of restrictions incompatible with a joint appointment	H6
Severance of restrictions incompatible with an appointment to act jointly in some matters and jointly and severally in others	H7
Severance of restrictions fettering an attorney's authority	H8
Severance of invalid restrictions as to when a replacement attorney may act	H9
Attorney or replacement attorney under 18	H10
Severance of invalid restrictions as to how a replacement attorney may act	H11
Survivor of original joint appointment cannot act with replacement	H12
Severance of invalid restrictions relating to gifts	H13
Severance of unreasonable, impractical or uncertain conditions	H14
Whether the instrument is in prescribed form	H15
Appointment of office holder as attorney	H16
Whether the instrument has been correctly executed	H17
Attorney's date of birth missing	H18
Donor's surname missing	H19
Attorney or replacement attorney as a 'named person'	H20
Eligibility of certificate provider	H21
Replacement for replacement attorney	H22
Appointment of substitute by an attorney	H23
Where attorney present when certificate provider interviews the donor	H24
Capacity to make an LPA	H25
Enduring powers of attorney cases	H26
Severance of restrictions incompatible with an EPA	H27
Severance of restrictions incompatible with a joint and several

appointment	H28
Severance of restrictions incompatible with a joint appointment	H29
Severance of restriction fettering attorney's authority	H30
Capacity to revoke EPA: test is not the same as for creation of LPA	H31
Appendix I Law Society Practice Notes
Lasting powers of attorney	I1
Meeting the needs of vulnerable clients	I2
Access to and disclosure of an incapacitated person's will	I3
Index	