CONTENTS

Dedication v
Preface to the First Edition vii
Introduction ix
Table of Cases xxvii
Table of Statutes xxxv
Table of Statutory Instruments xliii
Table of European Materials xlvii
List of Abbreviations xlix

Chapter 1
Background 1
Preliminary 1
Overview 1
Issues 1
Legal competence 3
Decision-making 5
A special jurisdiction 7
Confidentiality 8
Undue influence 9
Legal background 11
Historical 11
Legislation 13

The new climate 14
The social climate 14
General 14
Discrimination 14
Role of the law 18
Role of lawyers 20

The legal climate 20
General 20
Community Care 21
Equality and discrimination 24
Human Rights Act 1998 30
Civil Partnership Act 2004 34

Access to justice 36
Background 36
Unrepresented parties 37
Physical and sensory impairments 39
The (former) Court of Protection 40
Origins of the jurisdiction 40
Practice and procedure 41
General 41
Hearings 42
Fees and costs 43
Venue 44
An evaluation of the Court of Protection 45
The Public Guardianship Office 47
Background 47
Other jurisdictions 48
The Lord Chancellor’s Visitors 49
Historical 49
The Official Solicitor 52
Background 52
Creation of the OSPT 52
Law reform 53
Origins 53
The Law Commission 53
The Government’s response 54
‘Who Decides?’ 55
‘Making decisions’ 55
Legislation 55
Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000 55
Mental Incapacity Bill 56
Mental Capacity Act 2005 56
An initial assessment of the MCA 2005 57
The ad hoc Rules Committee 59
House of Lords Select Committee Report 60
The Government response 62
A New Ad Hoc Rules Committee 62
UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities 62
Background 62
The diagnostic threshold 63
Best interests 64
The functional test 64
Substituted decision-making 64
Individuals who cannot be supported 65
A view of the future 66

Chapter 2
The Mental Capacity Jurisdiction 67
Introduction 67
Part 1: Overview 68
Key elements 68
General 68
Essential provisions 68
The public bodies 69
Contents

The Code of Practice
- Application 69
- Legal effect 70
- Creation and revision 72

Part 2: Principles and concepts
- The principles 74
  - Background 74
  - Presumption of capacity 76
  - Practicable steps to help decision-making 78
  - Unwise decisions 81
  - Best interests 84
  - Less restrictive alternative 85
- Defining lack of capacity 87
  - The functional approach 87
  - People who lack capacity 88
  - Inability to make decisions 94
  - Common law tests of capacity 102
  - Reasonable belief of lack of capacity 103
  - Competence and capacity: children and young people 104
- The assessment of capacity 106
  - Background 106
  - When should capacity be assessed? 106
  - Who should assess capacity? 107
  - The need for formal assessment 109
  - How capacity is assessed 112
  - Recording assessments of capacity 116
- Determining best interests 119
  - Background 119
  - The best interests checklist 120

Part 3: General powers and duties
- Acts in connection with care or treatment – background 134
  - The problem 134
  - The Law Commission proposal 134
  - The views of the Joint Committee 135
- Acts in connection with care or treatment – the legislation 136
  - Protection from liability 136
  - Serious acts relating to medical treatment or welfare 138
  - Limitations on permitted acts 142
- Paying for goods, services and other expenditure 147
  - Background 147
  - The legislation 148
- Excluded decisions 151
  - Background 151
  - The legislation 151
- Ill-treatment or neglect 155
  - Background 155
  - Criminal offence 155
  - Courts and Criminal Justice Act 2015 160
Annex

Impact of Dementia and Other Conditions Affecting Capacity
Dr Steven Luttrell
Good Practice in the Assessment of Capacity and Management of Decision Making

Chapter 3

Lasting Powers of Attorney

Background

Powers of attorney
Limitations
The incapable donor
Statutory powers of attorney
Enduring powers of attorney
Lasting Powers of Attorney

Nature of lasting power of attorney
Character of lasting power of attorney
Problems in practice with ‘presumption of capacity’
Scope of lasting power of attorney
Property and affairs
Acting in the best interests of the donor
Welfare matters
Alternatives to welfare lasting powers of attorney

Form of lasting power of attorney
Who can give a lasting power of attorney?
Prescribed forms

Content of LPA

Section 1 – The donor’s details
Section 2 – Choice of attorney
Section 3 – More than one attorney
Section 4 – Replacement attorneys
Section 5 – Limiting when attorneys can make decisions (property and affairs)
Section 6 – Life-sustaining treatment (welfare LPA)
Section 7 – Named persons to be notified or told
Section 8 – Preferences and instructions
Section 9 – Prescribed information
Section 10 – Execution by donor
Section 11 – The certificate provider’s statement
Section 12 – The attorney’s statement

Creation of lasting power of attorney
A lasting power of attorney is created in two stages
The first stage: completing Sections 1 to 11
Capacity to create a power
The second stage: registration
The requirement of registration
Problems with capacity not being relevant to registration
Problems with early registration
Contents

Procedure for registration – Sections 12 to 15 233
Status of attorney prior to registration 234
Notices 235
Completion of registration 236
Objections to registration 237
The role of the Public Guardian 237
The role of the Court of Protection 238
Procedure 242
Enduring powers of attorney 243
The future of existing powers 243

Chapter 4
Powers of the Court 245
Preliminary 245
Declarations 246
Background 246
General powers of the court 247
Declarations as to capacity 247
Declarations as to medical treatment 248
Making decisions and appointing deputies 248
Powers of the Court 248
Making decisions 249
General 249
Personal welfare 250
Property and affairs 250
Deputies 252
Appointment 252
Powers 254
Revocation of appointment 255
How will the court exercise these powers? 255
The court’s approach 255
What happened to receiverships? 256
Control of lasting powers of attorney 257
Court’s powers to intervene 257
General 257
Specific powers 257
Applying to the court 261
The role of the Public Guardian 262
Challenges faced by the Court 263
Overview 263
Property and affairs 264
Personal welfare 264
The future 266

Chapter 5
Gifts, Statutory Wills and Settlements 269
Preliminary 269
The statutory framework 269
Contents

Independent mental capacity advocates 314
   Establishment 314
   Appointment, functions and role 315
   The duty to instruct 316
   NHS bodies 316
   Local authorities 317
   Expansion of role 317
   Powers of the IMCA 317
   Comment 318

Advance decisions 319
   Preliminary: the position at common law 319
   The starting point: the principle of adult autonomy 319
   Refusal of treatment 319
   The relationship with suicide 320
   Requests for treatment 320

Advance decisions under the Mental Capacity Act 2005 320
   Recognition 320
   Advance refusals of treatment 320
   Advance requests for treatment and care arrangements 321
   Applicability 321
   Life-sustaining treatment 322
   Effect 322
   Doubt or disagreement 323
   The Code of Practice 323
   A cautionary tale: X Primary Care Trust v XB 324
   Comment: striking a balance 325
   The alternative of a lasting power of attorney 326
   Decisions by health care professionals 326

Medical research 327
   Common law position 327
   The regulation of research 327
   Research authorised by the Mental Capacity Act 2005 329
   Background 329
   Application of the Act 329
   Comment 331

Chapter 7

Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards 333
   Background 333
   The Mental Health Act 1983, as amended by the Mental Health Act 2007 333
   Powers of admission, detention and treatment 333
   Review and appeals 335
   Purpose 335
   Comparisons 335
   Differences 336
   Overlaps 336
The Deprivation of liberty safeguards 336
The ‘Bournewood Gap’ 336
The decisions of the domestic courts 337
European Court of Human Rights 337
The MCA solution 338
Meaning of deprivation of liberty 338
Court of Protection powers 347
Deprivation of liberty in a hospital or care home 349
The authorisation procedure 350
The age requirement 350
The mental health requirement 350
The mental capacity requirement 351
The best interests requirement 351
The eligibility requirement 351
The no refusals requirement 355
Standard authorisations 355
Urgent authorisations 360
The Standard Authorisations, Assessments and Ordinary Residence Regulations 361
The Appointment of Relevant Person’s Representative Regulations 362
Review by the Court of Protection 363
Monitoring 365
Statistics 365
Comment 366

Chapter 8
Court Practice and Procedure 369
Preliminary 369
Role of the Lord Chancellor 369
Judiciary 370
Rules and Practice Directions 370
Status of the Court of Protection 371
Preliminary 371
The Court 371
Name and venue 371
Administration 371
Forms 372
Judges 372
Regional judges 373
Allocation of cases 373
Transfer of cases 374
Powers 374
General 374
Interim orders and directions 375
Reports 375
The Court Rules 376
Court of Protection Rules 2007 (COPR 2007) 376
Practice Directions 378
Contents

Practice Guidance 378
Interface with other rules 379
The overriding objective 379
  General 379
  Duties of the court and parties 379
  Interpretation 380
Case management powers 380
  General 380
  Security for costs 381
  Court’s own initiative 381
  Human rights 381
Practice and procedure 382
Court documents 382
  Statements of truth 382
  Personal details 382
  Access to documents 383
Service of documents 383
  Who serves? 383
  How is service effected? 383
Notifying the incapacitated person 384
Permission to apply 384
  Who may apply? 384
Starting proceedings 385
  Initial steps 385
  Responding to an application 385
  Parties 386
Applications within proceedings 387
  Applications without notice 387
  Interim remedies 387
Dealing with applications 388
  Directions 388
  Allocation 389
  Disputing the court’s jurisdiction 389
  Hearing the incapacitated person 389
  Reconsideration 389
Hearings 389
  Types of case 390
Evidence 390
  Admissions 391
  Witnesses’ evidence 391
  Depositions 392
  Reports 392
Experts 392
Disclosure 393
  Inspection 394
Litigation friends and representatives 394
Representation 395
Costs
  The general rule
  Assessment
  Fees
  Appeals
  Permission to appeal
  Enforcement
  Transitional provisions
  Miscellaneous provisions
Practical points
  The workload
  Volume of cases
  Cases under the court’s jurisdiction
Integration with other courts
  Judicial support
  Dual jurisdiction

Chapter 9
The Public Guardian and Supporting Services
  Introduction
  The Public Guardian
    Office of the Public Guardian
    Functions
    Powers
    Fees
    Annual Report
  The Office of the Public Guardian Board
  Panel of Deputies
  Challenges ahead
    Public Guardian’s role
    Dispute resolution
    Investigating abuse
    Use of technology
    Partnerships
    Funding
    Relationship with the Court of Protection
    Transforming the services of the OPG

Court of Protection Visitors
  Background
  The new regime
    Appointment
    Reports by Visitors
    Powers
    The changed climate
    Association of Independent Visitors

The Official Solicitor
  Status and function
Contents
The present office 418
  Vision Statement 419
  Acceptance policy 419
The incapacity work of the Official Solicitor 420
Other jurisdictions 424
Current and future issues 426
Court Funds Office 429
  Background 429
  Court Funds Rules 2011 430
  Investments on behalf of protected beneficiaries 431
  Contacting the CFO 432
Independent Mental Capacity Advocate Service 432
  Advocates 432
  IMCAs 432
Chapter 10
Miscellaneous 435
Enduring powers – transitional (Mental Capacity Act 2005, Sch 4) 435
Transitional provisions (Mental Capacity Act 2005, Sch 5) 436
  Mental Health Act 1983, Part VII 436
  Enduring Powers of Attorney Act 1985 437
Consequential amendments and repeals (Mental Capacity Act 2005, Sch 6) 437
Chapter 11
The Margins of the MCA 439
  Preliminary 439
  The inherent jurisdiction 439
    Background 439
    Vulnerable adults 440
    Incapacitated adults 442
    Adults lacking capacity for a reason outside MCA 2005 444
     Statutory reform 446
Overlap with judicial review 447
  The approach of the Court of Protection 447
  The approach of the Administrative Court 449
Overlap with personal injury proceedings 450
  Overview 450
  Assessment of capacity 451
  Best interests 454
  Management of monies received by P in civil proceedings 456
  Double recovery and the Court of Protection 457
The European Convention on Human Rights 460
Chapter 12
Other Jurisdictions 463
  Introduction 463
Cross-border issues 463
Private International Law 464
This chapter 464
Available law 465
The Convention on the International Protection of Adults 465
Mental Capacity Act 2005, Sch 3 465
Application of the law 466
Jurisdiction and habitual residence 467
Applicable law 468
Recognition and enforcement 468
Protective measures 469
Within the United Kingdom 469
The position in Non-Convention Countries 469
Northern Ireland 470
Existing law 470
Mental Capacity Bill 471
Ireland 471
Existing law 471
Legislation 472
Comment 473
Scotland 473
Background 473
Scots law 474
The Scottish courts 475
Development of adult incapacity law prior to 2000 477
Particular characteristics of Scots law 478
Literature 478
Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000 478
General 478
Jurisdiction and roles 479
The Courts 480
Other functions under the Act 481
Limitation of liability 483
Ill treatment and wilful neglect 483
The principles 484
Definitions of adult, incapable and incapacity 485
Powers of Attorney (Part 2) 487
Terminology 487
Overview 488
Underlying law, the POA document 489
Formalities 489
Non-Scottish Powers of Attorney 492
Powers of the sheriff 492
Accounts and funds (Part 3) 493
Joint accounts 493
‘Access to funds’ 493
Management of residents’ finances (Part 4) 495
Medical treatment and research (Part 5) 496
Contents

- Guardianship and intervention orders (Part 6) 496
  - Intervention orders 497
  - Guardianship 498
  - Deprivation of Liberty 498
  - Wills and related matters 499
  - Measures outwith the Incapacity Act 500

- Appendix 1
  Mental Capacity Act 2005 501

- Appendix 2
  Mental Capacity Act 2005: Code of Practice 657

- Appendix 3
  Mental Capacity Act 2005: Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards Code of Practice Supplementing the main Mental Capacity Act 2005 Code of Practice 897

- Index 991